Typhoid Fever Rampant in Belgian Army—Renewal of Activities Reported in Flanders and in Argonne Forest—Allies Claim Advances—80,000 Russians are Captured by Germans in 20 Days Time—German Invasion Fails Second Time.

BULLETIN

VIENNA, DEC. 2.—3:30 P. M.—AUSTRIAN TROOPS TODAY OCCUPIED BELGRADE.

By Associated Press.

London, December 2.—Russian-Poland is still the center of interest in the war situation so far as military operations are concerned. Reports from the rival headquarters indicate that any decisive result on either side is still in the balance, although on the face of the known facts the conviction is growing that the German general Mackensen has done at Lodz what Bazaine, in the Franco-Prussian war, failed to do at Metz. He has saved his army after it was encircled by the enemy, yet it is equally clear that the German tactical plans for the invasion of Warsaw again has failed, according to the prevailing opinion in England. Whether a counter invasion of Silesia has been rendered impossible, for the present, remains to be seen.

Little activity along the Austrian front is reported. An exception is the assertion from Vienna that the Austrians captured quantities of prisoners and munitions of war along the southern line, but there is nothing to indicate that Russia has given way in her evident intention of invading the rich German provinces by the way of Cracow.

Later official reports from Vienna declared that calm prevailed on the Cracow front, but that the fighting continued in the Carpathians. Serbian eyes are turned hopefully in the direction of these mountains in the expectation soon of seeing a Russian force under the walls of Budapest. This would relieve the pressure being exerted against Serbia by half a million Austrian troops.

Berlin reports a desperate three-day battle in Poland, accompanied by a successful effort on the part of the Germans to break through the Russian line.

According to dispatches reaching here from Petrograd, Lovicz and Lodz still are critical points in the fighting in northern Poland where the final decision, when it does come, bids fair to be the most momentous of the whole war.

Alarming news has been received in the form of a report of serious epidemic of typhoid fever in the Belgian army.

Heavy fighting has been resumed in the region of the Argonne forest and although today's French and German official communications disagree as to the outcome it was apparent that the conflict is marked with considerable violence. The German Emperor's own regiment was selected to make an assault on a strong French position, which the Berlin statement says was won. The French statement says that the German attack was repulsed and that progress was made by the allied troops.

In Belgium infantry fighting has been resumed, although it is not clear whether the Germans have begun another general movement. The French war office reports that German attacks on entrenchments were beaten back and that the Germans suffered heavily in the artillery duel.

At other points in the line fighting has become more spirited. According to the French, ground has been won by the allies in certain sections, including the occupation of German trenches.

Berlin still insists that affairs in the east are progressing to its satisfaction. It is stated that in the fight in Russian-Poland, between November 11 and December 1, 80,000 Russians were captured unwounded.

WAR IS EXPECTED TO MAKE HORSES SCARCE IN FAYETTE

Local Horseman Says Farmers of County Will Have Difficulty in Procuring Animals to Pull the Plow, as Many of That Class Are Being Shipped Across the Sea to Take Part in European War—High Prices Expected Next Spring.

That few horses of the type fit for cavalry or artillery purposes will be left in this part of the country as a result of the demand created by the war raging in Europe, was the gist of a statement made yesterday by Mr. Charles Allen, well known local horseman, who is thoroughly familiar with conditions pertaining to the local market.

More than 300 head of horses have been shipped from Washington C. H., while other large consignments have gone forward from Greenfield, London, Mt. Sterling, Wilmington and other points. Foreign dealers who have purchased horses in Washington C. H., have paid the farmers of this county no less than $50,000 for army horses and scarcity in this class of animals will exist next spring when cropping time comes, it is claimed.

When asked what the effect the sale of so much work stock will have on farming conditions, Mr. Allen said:

"The farmers will be short of work stock next spring, as the horses going out for army purposes are of the kind that pull the plow, and their places will be difficult to fill at nominal prices. I look for high prices to prevail on horses of the kind being purchased for the export trade at this time."

"It is estimated by experts that the close of the year will find that over 200,000 head of horses have been purchased by the European governments in the United States," Mr. Allen stated further. "Buyers who visited the last stock sale here and at London on Tuesday of this week, complained that they were unable to find horses suitable to fill the requirements of army service. This means that when spring arrives horses of this type will be badly needed by local farmers."

W. Perkins, of New York, is chairman, state chairmen and other prominent in the party councils.

Neither Colonel Theodore Roosevelt nor Governor Hiram Johnson of California, vice-presidential candidate in 1912, was present. California, however, was represented by four delegates reported to be prepared to launch a boom for Governor Johnson for President in 1916.

TOUCHING IS PLEA OF MURDERER

Columbus, O., Dec. 2.—"You know God is meek and merciful and will you have mercy on me?" Thus wrote Harley Beard, 18-year-old boy murderer of three members of the Massie family, near Ironton, to Governor Cox today from his cell in the death chamber at the penitentiary. He is sentenced to be electrocuted a few minutes after Thursday midnight together with Wesley Jenkins, colored, of Dayton, who killed his sweetheart.

"I am only a boy," continues the letter. "I am not asking for justice, but for mercy." Beard also asked mercy for Jenkins.

The governor indicated that he does not expect to issue a reprieve.

REVENUE HEADS TO THE RESCUE

Extend Time For Supplying Demand For War Stamps.

PEOPLE NEEDLESSLY ALARMED

No Intention On the Part of the Government to Prosecute Anyone Subject to the Tax Who Is Willing and Ready to Buy Stamps and Pay. Collectors Notify Railroads of the Ruling.

Washington, Dec. 2.—Thousands of persons in many cities who spent hours rushing the offices of internal revenue collectors, alarmed over their inability to obtain revenue stamps to comply with the war revenue tax law, were needlessly frightened over what might happen if they were not on the minute with their stamping. The internal revenue bureau in the treasury department, it self much worried over the task of getting the law into smooth working order, found time to send telegrams to collectors making it plain that the government has no intention of prosecuting anybody subject to the tax who shows that he is willing and ready to buy stamps and pay.

Frantic calls from collectors telling of besieging crowds demanding stamps, resulted in a telegram signed by Commissioner Osborn and sent to all collectors to clear up the difficulty. It said: "Date all special tax returns Nov. 30 until you are able to handle applications promptly, unless you have information that no effort was made to file same prior to that date. If unable to supply demands for documentary stamps for bills of lading permit shipments to go forward, have record kept and affix or cancel stamps when received. Notify railroads."

Officials here explained that everything possible had been done here to get ready to enforce the law. The bureau of engraving and printing has worked night and day since the law was passed, turning out the new revenue stamps, and they have been shipped away from Washington many tons at a time.

ALFRED T. MAHAN

Noted Naval Expert Who Is Dead at National Capital.

REAR ADMIRAL MAHAN CHOSEN BY GRIM REAPER

Noted Naval Expert and Writer
Victim of Heart Disease.

Washington, Dec. 2.—Rear Admiral Alfred Thayer Mahan, the noted naval expert and writer, died here in the naval hospital. Several weeks ago the admiral and Mrs. Mahan came to Washington from their home at Queque, N. Y., to spend the winter in Washington. About a week ago the admiral suffered an attack of heart trouble and was taken to the naval hospital, where he died.

Admiral Mahan was born at West Point, N. Y., seventy-four years ago, and after notable service in the navy was retired in 1896. He was the son of Dennis Hart Mahan, a West Point graduate, and was recognized as an international authority on naval warfare, and his writings and criticisms of naval affairs attracted wide attention. He was graduated at the naval academy at Annapolis and promoted through the various grades until as a captain, in 1896, he was retired at his own request. Ten years later, in 1906, he was advanced to the grade of rear admiral, retired. During the civil war he had served on the ship Congress and later during the war served on the South Atlantic blockading squadrons.

He had done duty on American naval stations all over the world, has been president of the navy war college at Newport, and during the war with Spain was a highly valued member of the naval board of strategy. In 1899 he was a delegate to the Hague peace conference.

Admiral Mahan is best known as the recognized naval expert of the world, and his utterances were given respectful attention by all maritime powers. American and English universities made him the recipient of honorary degrees. He served as president of the American Historical association and of the American Academy of Arts and Letters, and was the author of several hundred books and magazine articles that enjoyed wide publication. In 1872 he married Miss Ellen Lyle Evans, who survives him.

It has been said of Rear Admiral Mahan that his works on the influence of sea power on world history are responsible for the German imperial naval policy.

Mourning Smokes.

Speaking of the old "church warden" or "yard of clay" pipes, it may not be known that in the remoter country districts of Lancashire the "church warden" figures prominently at funerals. On the return of the mourners to the late home of the deceased a box of "long clays" is unsealed and the pipes handed to the male members of the company, who, ringed before the fire, indulge in the memories of old days called forth by the occasion. The circle of long clay pipes, with the circling clouds of smoke, harmonize well with the solemn suits of black and the subdued dignity of the company. At breaking up the pipes are snapped in significance that the occasion for their use is ended.—London Chronicle.

SUPREME COURT KILLS WEIGHT LAW

Columbus, Dec. 2.—The Ohio supreme court held unconstitutional the "sale by weight" law passed by the 1913 legislature and providing that some fifty-five food products should be sold by weight or numerical count instead of by measure. Following the decision, State Sealer of Weights and Measures Fred Albrecht gave out a statement urging the public not to go back to the old method of buying foodstuffs by the basket or by the measure.

The Cheer Of The Red Cross Seal

With each Christmas celebration the Red Cross Christmas seals are becoming more and more an indispensable adornment of the Christmas package, bringing a Christmas suggestion of happiness and helpfulness.

"Just a square bit of paper that carries a dash of color and a brighter message of hope and cheer—and yet the Red Cross Christmas seal is endowed with a two-fold purpose that makes it the most powerful agency in the war against the great white plague."

All over the country the gay little holiday sticker is doing its part—such a big part for such a little picture, in the wonderful life saving work of the National Anti-Tuberculosis society.

Tiny as it is in size, as a money maker it is a giant, and most anti-tuberculosis organizations have come to depend on the seal sale as the largest source of income.

It also offers double benefaction in the fact that it has been a remarkable means of spreading public education in regard to the stamping out of the white plague, for so extensive and well heralded has been the crusade of the Red Cross seal that it is known to all the world and carries its own individual meaning.

Last year the sale of these seals was nearly 45,000,000, netting $450,000 for the anti-tuberculosis campaign.

It has been owing to the strenuous efforts of the Browning club that the Red Cross Christmas seal has been made a thing of real magnitude in our own city.

Last year these club women—and they are the right kind of club women too, with the helpful spirit in both philanthropy and civics—sold over 12,000 of these stamps.

By this large sale they secured the services of a district nurse, free, for a month, and the benefits which resulted from the nurse's visit are too well known to need recital.

Spurred on by past success, this year the Browning club has determined to sell 25,000 stamps, and it is a foregone conclusion that they will sell them.

The immense undertaking is the result of a double purpose, to aid in the work of protecting all communities from the menace of tuberculosis, and to make a splendid contribution towards a permanent nurse in our own community, knowing well that there is no factor so important in the prevention of disease as the permanent nurse.

The sale of 25,000 seals insures $200 to the local society for a district nurse, so that the greater part of the money paid out for seals comes back to us in direct benefit.

It's going to require hard work and steady pulling to sell such a large number of seals, but Christmas day will find it accomplished.

The Browning women are just starting out in this season's crusade, but are finding a kindly reception and ready buyers.

The business men are encouraging them with large purchases and all possible help; the motion picture theater managers have signified their desire to help; men, women and children are buying the bright little seals for the Christmas package, for no Christmas gift is quite complete without it.

Last year the selling of 12,000 stamps seemed a well nigh impossible undertaking. But this year, with twice the number to sell, the unselfish Browning women are sanguine of success, partly because the seal and its purpose has now become closely interwoven with the Christmas spirit and its purpose is generally understood.

Through the purchase of Red Cross seals every man, woman and child in Washington C. H. has a share in the work of stamping out tuberculosis and in bringing a district nurse to our own city.

The purchase of these seals should be a duty and a privilege in which all should share and by prompt response lighten the burden which now rests upon the Browning club.

Poetry For Today

THE COLLEGE WIDOW.

The football game was over,
The players gathered round
The hero of the battle,
Who lay senseless on the ground.

They gazed in speechless wonder
At the sadly hopeless wreck,
The doctor nodded gravely,
It was a broken neck!

The solemn, slow procession
Moved to his cottage home,
To tell his fair young widow,
So sadly left alone.

She cast a look of wonder
On the once strong, healthy frame,
Then asked his fellow team-mates:
"Who won the football game?"

PETITIONS OUT TO OUST HOG CHOLERA ERADICATION WORK

Alleging State Work in This County Is Failure, and Asking Its Abolishment a Score of Petitions Are Now in Circulation and Hundreds of Farmers Are Affixing Names—Petitions Addressed to the Agricultural Commission.

A score of petitions are being widely circulated throughout Fayette county, and later are to be presented to the Agricultural Commission of Ohio, asking that the hog cholera eradication work in Fayette county be abolished, and that former conditions be permitted as now prevail in other counties.

The opposition to the work of the State Bureau of Live Stock Industry has been growing for some time owing to certain restrictions contained in the quarantine of the county, and some of the methods deemed necessary by the bureau in its work, with the result that a few days ago petitions were drawn up declaring the work a failure, and asking that the eradication work be dropped.

It is claimed that hundreds of farmers already have signed the petitions, and that more than 1000 names will be attached to the petitions when they are presented to the Agricultural Commission, and what action the Commission will take is not known, as no statement has been issued by the Commission, and in all probability will not until the petition is formally presented.

The hog cholera eradication work in Fayette county is the result of an appropriation of $20,000 by the legislature, to be expended in hog cholera eradication in some county where petitioned for by the largest percentage of the voters.

Petitions were circulated in Fayette county, and more than 2,000 signatures were attached when presented to the Agricultural Commission, with the result that the eradication work was awarded to Fayette county, and in the fall of 1913 several assistant state veterinarians with Dr. H. A. Salt locally in charge, took up the work of making a survey of the county. Last March the actual eradication work was taken up, and has been worked incessantly since that time, with four to nine veterinarians engaged in the work.

While no definite statistics are announced on the work, it is claimed that the statistics will show decided progress made by the Bureau, and when fully completed in a short time the figures will be made public.

The petitions now being circulated among the farmers, is given in full as follows:

"To the Honorable Board of Agriculture, Columbus, Ohio.

"We, the undersigned farmers of Fayette county, Ohio, hereby petition your honorable body and represent that the effort of your department to eradicate in this county the disease of hog cholera, is of no avail under methods now employed for conducting same. The veterinary doctors refuse to treat any hogs until after a herd is infected by cholera and as a result a number of our farmers are employing outside surgeons to immune their hogs.

"The disease is just as prevalent in the county now as when they commenced operations, and their arbitrary rules of quarantine and action in killing hogs without ample compensation, and carelessness in tramping from diseased farms to inspect healthy herds, has caused general dissatisfaction among the farmers and loss of confidence in the effort to arrest the disease. "We therefore, respectfully petition your honorable body to remove the quarantine now established on account of such disease, and treat same in this county in same manner as the same is being treated in other counties of the state."

FOUND GUILTY OF PLAYING POKER

Chief Moore and Officers Baughn and Bell made a quiet trip to the home of Earl Rodgers, on High street, about 11 o'clock Tuesday night, with the result that Rodgers, Jesse Moore, "Red" Sprague, Geo. Chestnut and Chas. Brown were arrested upon a charge of gambling, and at their trial before Mayor Coffey Wednesday morning they were found guilty and Rodgers was fined $50 and the costs and given a short workhouse sentence while the others each drew $25 and the costs, which was remitted pending good behavior. Rodgers was remanded to jail and if the fine is not paid he will be sent to Xenia.

Money and poker chips were found upon the table, according to the police, and Rodgers is said to have presided over the game.

HUNTING PERMITTED IN FAYETTE COUNTY

Local nimrods can shoulder a gun and set off into the fields and forests in search of Mr. Rabbit.

This is the result of a modification of the quarantine order. However, no hunting is permitted in townships where infection exists, so that the ban is still on and no hunting is allowed in Jasper township.

The usual hunters' licenses are necessary before hunting is permitted in the townships free from infection.

STORE ROBBED DURING NIGHT

The George A. Gregg shoe store was visited by burglars some time Tuesday night, and a small amount in change was removed from the cash register. So far as known nothing else was touched, the burglar desiring money only.

Entrance was gained by smashing the glass in the rear door. This was done in a manner indicating that the fellow who did the work was familiar with the location of the night lock, as the hole was made in the glass between the woodwork of the door and an iron bar, so that the thief could reach into the aperture and readily unfasten the lock, push open the door and enter.

The burglar might easily have stood outside the door and watched Mr. Gregg before Mr. Gregg took his departure for the night, and saw that he left the change in the cash register.

The police were notified of the burglary and are making an investigation which may lead to the apprehension of the thief, who is suspected of being of youthful age.

It is the first robbery occurring in the business section of the city for quite a little while.

BASKETBALL TAKES STAGE

Fear of a Few Weeks Ago That Y. M. C. A. Would Be Unable to Get a Team Together is Displaced by the Conviction That Strongest Five of Its History Can Be Secured.

A few weeks ago it was feared that there would be no representative basketball team to defend the Y. M. C. A. this winter and because of the great popularity of the sport last season the many local followers of the game were sorely grieved. Since that time, however, unexpected material has come to light and recently it was believed that a fairly good team could be pulled together. Still more recently have hopes mounted to a dizzy height by the prediction that the "Y" will be able to put on the floor this year the strongest five it has yet known, and one capable of coping with the best amateur teams in the state.

Among the candidates now working out are Russ Mobley, star forward here two years ago, Peterson, Kier and Homer Smith, of the old guard, "Dad" Smith, former Jamestown star and college performer, and Coach Schlabach of the High school football eleven, formerly a basketball favorite on Ohio Wesleyan 'varsity. There are several others and it is noted that all of them are first class men. The team is expected to weigh from 10 to 20 pounds heavier than any former local aggregation.

ELKS WILL BRING CHEER TO SCORES OF YOUNGSTERS

Big Hearted Antlered Herd Will Aid Santa Claus in Making Glad the Hearts of Scores of Youngsters Upon Whom Fortune Has Not Smiled as Brightly as More Fortunate Companions—Hundreds of Dollars to be Expended.

For the first time since their entire equipment was wiped out by the big fire which destroyed the Masonic Temple and surrounding buildings, the Washington Lodge of B. P. O. Elks have obtained a full lease on Santa Claus for the purpose of remembering their worthy little friends of the city on Christmas morning. This year the Elks are thoroughly established in their handsome quarters in the Hunt building on Main street, and Christmas morning at nine o'clock the big hearted Elks will see that Santa Claus is present, and that a real Christmas tree is laden for those whom Santa Claus would not otherwise visit. An orchestra will add enchantment to the scene.

It is the intention of the Antlered Herd to aid Santa Claus in locating the worthy youngsters in the city, so that the little fellows may also enjoy a genuine Christmas, just as their more fortunate companions always do.

The work of the Elks will be systematized so that actual wants of the youngsters may be established, and noted, and the heart gladdened in a manner befitting the merry event. Several hundred dollars will be expended by the Elks in making glad the hearts of the city's poor.

The last time the Elks carried out their commendable work in the city on the usual large scale, was just prior to the fire which made them homeless for a time. At that time, it will be recalled, an epidemic had resulted in a large number of the needy youngsters being under quarantine, and 50 baskets of fruit, nuts, candy and other articles, had been placed in the club rooms to be distributed among those under quarantine, on New Years eve. The fire carried the 50 baskets with it.

However, regardless of their loss, and the fact that they themselves were without a home, the Elks immediately set to work and duplicated their gifts, distributing them on time.

In Social Circles

The Browning club met last evening with about thirty interested members present.

Mrs. Sever, chairman of the Red Cross committee told of the work that was already in full action and eulogized the committee. She bespoke the help of every member of the Browning club.

Mrs. Maggie Hopkins took charge of the program hour of the Literature department, and the motto presented, "Remember the whole of your life must be spent in your own company and that only the educated man is good company for himself."

Miss Ruth Reid gave most artistic interpretation to a piano solo, a McDowell composition.

"Chinese Schools and Universities" were presented for the pleasure and instruction of the club, by Mrs. Julia Dahl. Schools and study began in that country before Abraham's time and there was one ancient university, so called, during the 1st Crusade.

Peking has been the great educational center. 2000 men coming at one time for the Bachelor's test. They have had however no system of elementary schools but Confucianism and state are united in educational ideas. The first real effort was made in Lieut. Tsin and as the university was in fine success the Boxer trouble came in. Since in every way the Imperial university at Peking, and at Naeking have been putting through thorough courses and a fine curriculum. These were with the sons especially in view. Just at the close of the last century, uplifting of the daughters began. The government opened schools with foot-binding and concubinage cut out. Christian women became teachers and now the educated women of China will help for great possibilities in the future.

Quite a little discussion and items followed this interesting paper.

Mrs. Minnie Bush gave an entertaining sketch of the poet Robert Browning, English poet of 1812. He was artist, musician and then poet. It needs valuable mental effort to understand the inner life of his poems. Comparison has been made that Tennyson is like the light meat in cuisine and Browning the dark.

Mrs. Ada Jones gave from Browning a poem which brought in much of the famed Grecian history of Eschylus and Euripides, the latter of whom opened a new world of Grecian literature, handing down eighteen plays of great beauty. Of these Alcestis was thought to be the best and all Greece was said to be a monument to Euripides while Macedonia but covered his bones. The story of Alcestis as given by Mrs. Jones was intensely interesting.

The Browning club will meet next week on Wednesday evening, on account of the lecture course number on Tuesday night.

The Cecilians enjoyed a delightful musical recital at the home of Mrs. Thos. H. Craig Tuesday afternoon, each club member inviting one guest.

A specially choice program was introduced in a spicy courier review by Mrs. Nina S. Craig. "American Women Composers" was the subject of an interesting paper by Mrs. Fannie S. Hodson.

Mrs. Morna Chapman gave brilliant interpretation to two piano numbers (a) Festival Minuet Op. 17 No. 1; (b) Oriental Scene Op. 17 No. 3, Mrs. F. E. Orth.

Two beautiful violin numbers were played by Miss Mazie Kessler, Miss Light accompanist. They were (a) Berceuse; (b) Romance, Mrs. H. H. A. Beach.

Mrs. Lona G. Hughey was in superb voice and her singing of "To You", Jean Boffanjan, was thoroughly appreciated. Mrs. Margaret Stitt played the accompaniment.

Two piano numbers, (a) Minuet Italien Op. 22 No. 2; (b) Dance des Fleurs, Mrs. H. H. A. Beach most artistically rendered by Mrs. Eva Craig, closed the program.

Mrs. Ella Worley Spurgeon, of Muncie, Ind., was an out of town guest.

The Tuesday Auction Bridge club was charmingly entertained by Mrs. C. G. Beckel. Miss Dorothy Waller, of Morganfield, Ky., and Miss Mary Jo Lazarus, of Bowling Green, Ky., were guests from out of town.

Miss Emma Jackson entertained the girls of her Sunday school class, known as the Philathea club, with an elaborate turkey dinner, of twenty covers, Wednesday evening.

The table decorations were exceedingly artistic and unusual. A brass basket of crimson bitter sweet in the center of a mirror entwined with the bitter sweet, formed central embellishment, and graceful sprays of the same winter flower lay on the Damask. The decorations were singularly effective with the gold band china used.

After the dinner the girls held their monthly social session and business meeting.

GERMANS RESUME OFFENSIVE

Berlin Reports Plan to Turn Russian Right Flank.

RULERS AT THE BATTLE FRONT

Presence of Emperor William and Czar Nicholas Encourages Rival Armies to Still Greater Efforts and May Force the Issue Within a Short Time—Operations in the Eastern and Western Zones of the War.

London, Dec. 2.—The German forces in Poland have resumed the offensive, according to late advices from Berlin, and are now on the way towards executing their plan to turn the right flank of the Russians and force back the center, cutting the Russian communications with Warsaw. This plan, which started with the defeat of the Russians at Lipno and Plock, was interrupted, according to Berlin, by the arrival of Russian reinforcements, which threw the German armies on the defensive for a time. Now they appear to be progressing again in the direction of Lowicz.

The apparent deadlock of the past few days has had the effect of bringing to the battle front the czar of Russia and the emperor of Germany. Advices from Petrograd and Berlin give the impression that the presence of the respective rulers will have the effect of urging their armies to still greater efforts and of bringing of the issue within a short time.

The enveloping movement of the Russians at Lodz has apparently failed, but the losses suffered by the Germans in their effort to break through have been enormous, and have forced Marshal Von Hindenburg to call up reinforcements from every available point. The battle, with Lodz as the center, continues.

Against the Austro-German forces in the south the Russians continue to gain more decisive results. They are now in possession of all the Austrian positions protecting the Carpathian passes and are said to have arrived abreast of Cracow, while their captures for three weeks number 50,000 men.

Operations in the West.

In the west, although the German official report says there is nothing to communicate, the French official statement notes a somewhat lively campaign in Belgium and German activity to the north of Arras. This may mean that the Germans have commenced, or are about to commence, another attempt to get through to the French ports. Certainly there are some important changes in the dispositions of the German troops, but what they foreshadow is only to the German general staff.

The Germans, according to Dutch reports, are strongly fortifying Zeebrugge and other Belgian ports against a renewal of the attacks by the allied fleet. The fighting which has occurred around Ypres was due to the allies pushing their lines forward.

The king of England is in France, and the king of Belgium, as usual, is spending all his time with his soldiers. President Poincare of France started for another visit to the northern battlefield.

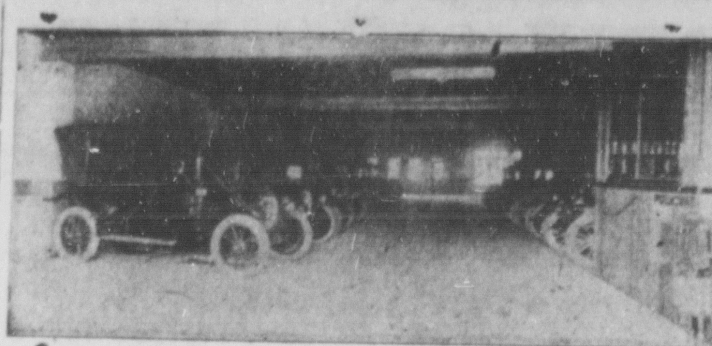

The German embassy at The Hague has received from Berlin an official contradiction of a great Russian victory in Poland. The statement says that the battle near Lodz continues, and that the Germans have thus far captured between 60,000 and 70,000 unwounded prisoners, 150 cannon and 200 machine guns, losing themselves only two heavy and two light guns.

PLAN RESUMED

Berlin (By Wireless via London), Dec. 2.—Latest reports from Russian Poland given out officially in Berlin indicate that the Germans have resumed the execution of their plan to encompass the Russian right flank and to force it back on the center, at the same time cutting off the Russian communication with Warsaw.

The carrying out of this plan, which began with a Russian defeat at Lipno and at Plock, was later hindered by the arrival of Russian reinforcements, and the Germans for the moment were thrown on their defensive. Now, after repulsing a number of attacks, the Germans appear to be moving forward in the direction of Lowicz.

German movements in this region have not been interfered with in the last few days and this, German military observers say, must be taken as a highly favorable sign, as, in their opinion, a German repulse of the Russian advances probably has been followed by a general offensive movement of the Germans toward Lodz.

Columbus, Dec. 2.—All the Republican county chairmen in the state have indorsed the plan of State Chairman Edwin Jones to keep the party state headquarters in the Commercial building open permanently. "These headquarters will be kept open to prepare for the 1916 campaign," said Chairman Jones, who spent the day listening to the pleas of office-seekers who thronged headquarters. "Not to build a machine," he added, "but to rehabilitate the party and put it in shape for the big fight in two years."

CENSORSHIP SHOULD BEGIN WITH SCENARIOS

Famous Jurist Agrees With National Board, It Having Issued Printed Instructions Along This Line Which Guards Producers Against Many Expensive Failures.

Chicago, Nov. 2.—"Judge Willis Brown, known as the 'friend of the boys and girls,' whose films showing rescue work among the little folks will be exhibited over the central section of the United States, has entered a new plea for proper censorship of films.

"Judge Brown declares it should be the business of motion picture censors to inspect and deal with scenarios, and make their suggestions before thousands of dollars have been expended by the motion picture producers in the manufacture of an expensive set of reels. At the present time, the judge points out, the censor waits until the film is completed before making cuts that are often very harmful and in many cases fatal to the sense of the play."

The National Board of Censorship works directly along the lines suggested by Judge Brown. Its printed book of standards is furnished free to all producers of motion pictures and the heads of their scenario departments are encouraged to discuss doubtful situations with the Board before putting them into their films.

Legalized censors claim that such constructive criticism is no part of their duty.

Fermanagh still bears its ancient name, which signifies "the mountain valley marsh district," which after centuries of wavering finally triumphed over the alternative, Maguire's county.—London Chronicle.

TROOPS OF VILLA ARE IN CAPITAL

Chief Himself Controls City From Suburb of San Angel.

FIGHTING OCCURS IN CAPITAL

Soldiers of Villa and Those of General Zapata, Who Holds Mexico City, Reported to Have Clashed in the Streets—Carranza Troops Arrive to Garrison Tampico—Fighting Near the American Border.

El Paso, Tex., Dec. — General Francisco Villa, commander-in-chief of the forces of the "convention" in Mexico, occupies San Angel, a suburb of Mexico City, from which he can control the city. The location is but five miles from the heart of the national capital, two miles from Chapultepec castle, virtually a part of the capital city itself, and from it Villa could bombard the capital if he wished. A vast number of Villa's troops are now in the capital and outnumber the Zapatistas, who took charge last week when General Lucio Blanco abandoned the town.

Carranza agents in El Paso declare that there is and has been for several hours fighting in the streets of the capital between the troops of Villa and those of Zapata. The Carranza consul here confirms this and says that on the arrival of Villa in the edge of the Mexican capital, Zapata, the bandit chief of the south, threatened to arrest and jail the former bandit of the north, whereupon Villa did not attempt to enter farther than San Angel. Villa's agents deny that there is any trouble.

General Eduardo Hay, at the head of a large force, is advancing from Monterey on Saltillo, according to Carranza agents, and Luis Gutierrez, brother of the provisional president, has arrived in Monterey and has reiterated his allegiance to Carranza.

All the Carranza troops sent from Puerto Mexico to Tampico have arrived safely and it is now stated that the port is probably the most strongly defended port in Mexico.

Telegrams from Douglas, Ariz., said that in the vicinity of Naco, Maytorena's troops are sapping their way toward the trenches held by General Hill, which surround the town. There is desultory firing in which both sides are engaged. Private Caine of Troop B, Ninth United States cavalry, was wounded in the head by a stray bullet and may die. Four Mexican children on the American side were also wounded.

ORIGIN OF THE PEARL.

The Ancients Thought It Was a Drop of Dew From Heaven.

No record exists or even tradition as to the discovery of the first pearl. The mystery of its origin has doubtless contributed in no small degree to render it the prime favorite that it has ever been in the eyes of the orientals.

From time immemorial the nations of antiquity have used the pearl to decorate their persons and adorn their temples and we find many curious beliefs existing as to its origin. The one most prevalent in Pliny's time was that pearls were formed from the dew of heaven, falling into the open shells at breeding time, and it was in allusion to this pretty conceit that a noble Venetian lady named Corrado had a gold medal struck (bearing the date 1620) on the reverse side of which is an open shell receiving the drops of dew from heaven which form into pearls as they fall. The motto was "Rore divino" (by the divine dew).

In these more practical but less poetic days the generally accepted theory is that some foreign substance, possibly even a grain of sand, having by accident entered the shell of the oyster, a certain amount of irritation is induced which causes the exudation of a pearly secretion (known as nacre), and this effectually covers up the intruder, and also that with the growth of the oyster the pearl increases in size.

The pearl, unlike all other gems, requires no assistance from man to enhance its value, or from art to add one iota to its perfect loveliness.—National Magazine.

A Sample of How Cleverly They Are Mixed in France.

Politicians of the United States are supposed to be gifted above those of all other countries in the art of self advertisement, but it is doubtful whether any of our politicians are more adroit in this respect than certain Frenchmen. Witness, for example, the following announcement, published in the newspapers of Paris:

"GENERAL ELECTION.

"To the Electors of the Steenth Arrondissement, City of Paris: The undersigned appreciates the flattering desire of many of his fellow citizens that he should represent this arrondissement in the chamber of deputies. Always proud to feel himself in accord with his fellow citizens, he is convinced that he would represent them faithfully and that his nomination would be equivalent to an election.

"Fully appreciating this fact and thanking the citizens of the Steenth arrondissement for their confidence so generously bestowed, he begs leave, nevertheless, to announce that the great increase in his business as a dealer in hats at 1000 Rue de Marseilles fully occupies his time and attention and that his service to the public at this well known establishment will unfortunately prevent him from accepting the responsibilities of a deputy.

"In short, instead of putting himself at the head of the people, he claims the privilege of putting his products upon their heads."—Chicago Herald.

WAR HORRORS FILM BANNED

Justice Vernon M. Davis Vacates Temporary Injunction Restraining City of New York From Ordering Off the Screen Pictures of Alleged German Atrocities Which the National Board of Censorship Had Declined to Pass—Against Public Policy.

New York (Special).—George H. Bell, the Commissioner of Licenses, and the National Board of Censorship of Motion Pictures, won a victory over the Life Photo Film Corporation when Judge Vernon M. Davis, in the Supreme Court, Manhattan, vacated a temporary injunction restraining the City of New York from interfering with the production of "The Ordeal," a series of war pictures which had been extensively advertised.

The pictures had been originally condemned by the National Board of Censorship on the ground that alleged German atrocities were shown and that their exhibition would be a violation of the principle of neutrality. The pictures, however, were shown in defiance of the Board's condemnation, at the Lexington Avenue Theatre. Complaints were made to Commissioner Bell, who consulted with William D. McGuire, Jr., executive secretary of the National Board of Censorship, and learned the reason for the rejection of the pictures. He ordered the moving views off the screen. A representative of the Commissioner also viewed the pictures and decided that the Board of Censorship had acted properly in declining to "pass" the films.

The producing corporation sued out an injunction against the License Commissioner, and after a lengthy hearing Justice Davis vacated the injunction. This is a victory for the License Commissioner, for the decision of the court establishes the claim that the police powers of the city extend, not alone to pictures or plays that are obscene or immoral in their character, but include also pictures of photoplays which are believed to be against public policy.

Mr. McGuire, at the request of Mr. Nicholson, the Assistant Corporation Counsel who handled the case in court, submitted affidavits from the seven members of the Board of Censorship who had condemned the picture, as well as telegrams from Boston, Providence, Milwaukee, Kansas City and Dallas, in which the pictures had been prohibited from being shown. A file of telegraphic correspondence between the National Board and Robert Lansing, the Third Assistant Secretary of State, was also introduced, denying that the Department of State had approved of the war pictures, either directly or indirectly, or that it was being shown by special dispensation of the State Department. It had been alleged in advertisements that the exhibition of the pictures had the sanction of the State Department.

THEATRE MANAGERS' PROTECTIVE ASSOCIATION

Opposes Official Censorship in Any Form.

An important step in the fight against legalized censorship whether municipal, State or Federal, has been taken in the union of forces for this purpose, between the National Board of Censorship and the United Managers' Protective Association, an influential body whose membership includes at the present time the managers of more than 2,700 theatres.

The officers of the United Managers' Association are: President, Marc Klaw; vice-president, Lee Shubert; second vice-president, E. F. Albee; third vice-president, H. W. Savage; fourth vice-president, Edmund Ludwig; treasurer, Sam A. Scribner, and secretary, Charles A. Bird.

The executive committee consists of A. L. Erlanger, Wm. A. Brady, Alf. Hayman, E. F. Albee, Walter Vincent.

On the executive committee (motion pictures) are J. Stuart Blackton, Carl Laemmle, Samuel Long, Adolph Zukor and P. A. Powers.

FARMERS ARE OFFERED NEW METHOD FOR MARKETING THEIR LIVE STOCK

Agency Has Been Organized to Secure Better Facilities for Handling Live Stock for the Farmers of the County and Market Them.

Farmers ship your own hogs through the live stock shipping agency, a new and original method that should command the consideration and patronage of every farmer in Fayette county.

Whereby each farmer will be enabled to ship intelligently his own hogs (or any other live stock) to any of our available markets and get just as good results at both ends of the line as the most up-to-date live stock speculator in the trade. Just as soon as the quarantine is modified so that shipments can be made to markets outside our state limits, this agency will furnish daily to all feeders who have hogs or other live stock ready for shipment, the correct markets free of charge. These markets will be received here by wire, between eight and nine o'clock each morning and will be correctly read to all parties having stock ready for shipment who may call us over either phone. It will be the business of this agency to order cars to place bedding and feed in same at the expense of the agency. To correctly load, seal and bill out and for this, together with the daily market reports and all other information on market conditions that may come to hand this agency will require the fee of ten cents per hundred pounds, one dollar per thousand pounds or which will amount to about sixteen dollars per car on hogs or twenty dollars per car on cattle. All shipments will be made in the name of the owner, and not in the name of the agency, will be subject to the orders of the owner through the agency and will be consigned to the best commission firms in the open market to which shipment is made.

The results of all sales, checks, etc., will be sent direct to the owner from the commission firm by mail as soon as stock is sold. In cases where farmers have less than car load lots it will be the business of this agency to locate a sufficient number of hogs to fill out a full deck and to build petition in cars at the expense of the two or more owners so that stock may be carried to the market separately sold separately, prorated and the returns for each separate lot may be sent directly to its respective owners. Shipments can be made through this agency from any point in Fayette county, where shipping facilities are established.

While we are advising against interstate shipment at the present time owing to the quarantine restrictions, we are prepared to furnish you with the Cleveland and Cincinnati markets and after December 7th will handle your stock to the markets in the most approved methods where immediate shipment is required.

This agency for the present is under the management of Grant DeWitt, an experienced live stock shipper and he will gladly give you any further information desired and all market reports will be obtainable through him at his place of residence, 221 Columbus avenue, Washington C. H., Ohio. Both Phones. adv D & R
